

St. Ignatius Loyola
Summer 2009 Reading and Writing for Incoming 6th Graders

Welcome to 6th grade at St. Ignatius Loyola! Here are the reading and writing assignments for you to do during the summer – enjoy! We strongly recommend that you complete this work before the end of August.

BOOK 1

The following are the required summer reading activity for incoming 6th Graders at St. Ignatius Loyola.

Tuck Everlasting by Natalie Babbitt

Over The Summer:

- Read story and take notes on characters, setting problems and events and conclusion. Please use your 2009 – 2010 Reading Copy Book.
- Each student will take an Accelerated Reader test online. This may be taken during the summer in the library or computer room or the first week of school.

First Week of School:

- Story Map completion on Tuck Everlasting (To be done in the classroom).

BOOK 2

First Week of School:

- Create book jacket on selected story and complete the enclosed detailed story elements.

OR

- Oral sharing of second book which will take place within the Reading class.

When school starts

On Monday, August 31 (the first day of regular classes), please bring the following to class:

- Your copy of Tuck Everlasting
- Your writing, as described above.
- Your second choice book